

but rather serves to inform those communities interested in obtaining such government capabilities to focus their requests for such status on the criteria actually utilized by the Treasury Department.

Conclusion

After analysis of the comments and further review of the matter, Customs has determined that Sanford Regional Airport no longer qualifies as a small, user-fee facility under the provisions of 19 U.S.C. 58b, and that Customs needs in the administration and enforcement of customs and related laws would best be served by establishing Sanford as a port of entry. Accordingly, Customs has decided to adopt the proposed amendments to part 101 and 122 of the Customs Regulations, published in the Federal Register on June 17, 1996 (61 FR 30552). However, a delayed effective date is observed because this document will serve as the written notice of termination of user-fee status to the Sanford Regional Airport as required by § 122.15(c).

The Regulatory Flexibility Act, and Executive Order 12866

Pursuant to provisions of the Regulatory Flexibility Act (5 U.S.C. 601 et seq.), it is certified that these amendments will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities, as these amendments concern the status of only one airport facility. Accordingly, these amendments are not subject to the regulatory analysis or other requirements of 5 U.S.C. 603 and 604. These amendments do not meet the criteria for a "significant regulatory action" as specified in Executive Order 12866.
